Sleeps	10	Pool	Private Pool
Bedrooms	5	Views	Sea & Mountain
Bathrooms	5	Beach	6 km

Summary

Found atop an unspoiled mountain ridge blanketed in fynbos, Cape Point Hideaway offers a perfect retreat with panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean and surrounding mountain ranges all the way to Cape Point. Situated between the iconic Table Mountain National Park and the lesser-known Baskloof Nature Reserve, this retreat feels blissfully secluded yet lies near a trendy coastal town with a unique charm. From the moment you arrive, you are greeted by an elegant space where the indoors effortlessly blend with the outdoors. The stylishly furnished interiors are brought together with warm, inviting tones, and large windows framing the breath-taking scenery. Cape Point Hideaway is a haven for those seeking relaxation, adventure, and a desire to explore the beauty of the Cape.

Leisure

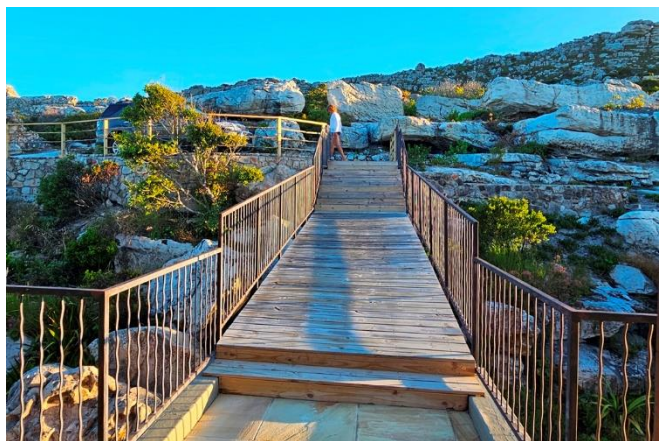

Imagine waking up to the soft light of sunrise on the mountains and the sound of birdsong welcoming the day. Mornings begin with a cup of freshly brewed coffee on the deck, where the mountains meet the Atlantic Ocean in a breath-taking display of natural beauty. Gather with family and friends in the spacious dining area for a leisurely breakfast before setting off to explore the Cape Peninsula. Enjoy a choice of hikes starting right from your doorstep, leading to even more magical scenery. A short drive away, you can visit the famous penguins at Boulders Beach, take in the views at Cape Point, or dive into the vibrant marine life with a snorkelling excursion.
